2. "Have you no mercy?" asked Grandfather.
"We have to take care of our own, Sir." (83)

It seems as though people have no compassion for others during this frightening time. They seem to only care about themselves.

What are your thoughts on how the farmer and the men keeping guard on the town act toward Grandfather and Matilda? (Do you agree or disagree with their actions? What would you do if you were in their situation?)
